

The Lake Hernando Dragon Boat Festival is an invitational event. Due to the number of entry request, the festival committee reserves the right to rule on any entries, and accept only those which we feel will offer the best variety for the festival.

*All pricing is for vendor spaces of 12 feet in length; if larger spaces are needed, pricing will be negotiated individually based upon the requirements.

NOTE: Please note that electricity is not available at this location. If you require electricity you will be responsible for providing your own generators. Generators are permitted so long as they are quiet

FOOD VENDORS FEE: $175

COMMERCIAL VENDORS FEE: $125

NON-PROFIT VENDOR FEE: $75

CRAFTERS FEE: Cost of entry is $50 (The Lake Hernando Dragon Boat Festival is not a buy/sell event for arts and craft. YOUR ART OR CRAFT MUST BE CLEARLY HOMEMADE). Manufactured, kit-made or resale items will not be allowed. If the festival committee determines that your product is not homemade, you will be asked to leave the festival without a refund).

Food vendors will be called once your contract has been received. If accepted, you will be notified and will then send in your payment and proof of insurance, with Events In Motion LLC and the Citrus County Chamber of Commerce as additional insured.

Space #'s are NOT guaranteed.

New applicants: At least one photo of complete setup is required.
(Returning vendors need not submit photos).

Continuing with our successful Chamber Events, the Lake Hernando Dragon Boat Festival has become one of the largest Dragon Boat Festivals in the Southeast, bringing teams and spectators in from all around Florida and the entire Southeast region. Close to 4000 participants and spectators attended the last event, and this event continues to grow. The Arts and Craft and Commercial Village are adjacent to the Team Village making it convenient for team members and spectators to look and buy!
